

The Mission Letter from Nanaimo, 2025 Spring

“And this is the will of Him who sent Me, that I shall lose none of all those He has given Me,
but raise them up at the last day.” (John 6:39)

Shalom, beloved partners in Christ. How have you been? Greetings from beautiful Nanaimo, where the sea sparkles, the sky is clear, flowers bloom in eager succession, and the forest grows greener with each passing day.

As we watch nature change with the flow of time, we are reminded of the Lord we will meet at the end of that time. Until that day, we, the Nanaimo First Nations Church ministry team, will continue to pursue the prize of our calling—saving souls and living unashamed before the Lord’s throne. Thank you for walking with us.

1) 2025 First Nations Ministry Conference

The 2025 PAOC First Nations Ministry Conference was hosted by Nanaimo First Nations Church. From April 15 (Tuesday) to 17 (Thursday), about 50 pastors serving First Nations communities across British Columbia and the Yukon gathered in Nanaimo. Together, they gave thanks for God’s faithfulness and shared testimonies and ministry case studies, reviewing the direction of First Nations ministry in Canada and reflecting on their own mission fields.

On the third day, Pastor Joon Cho gave a missionary briefing. He shared the vision and current rebuilding efforts of churches in northern Vancouver Island, giving glory to God who opens the doors of closed churches through our church’s obedience.

Each evening, everyone joined in passionate worship, prayer, and praise, receiving spiritual renewal. Until the Lord returns, First Nations missions in Canada will not stop. We praise the Lord who will bring salvation to all the nations among the First Nations people.

First Nations missionaries praying passionately

Pastor Joon sharing a missionary report & vision

2) Easter Thanksgiving Worship

On Sunday, April 20, we held our 2025 Easter Thanksgiving Worship Service. We pray that the victory of Jesus, who overcame the power of death and rose again, would be poured out over all of Nanaimo, especially the next generation. The victory of Jesus, who dealt with despair, discouragement, suicide, deception, immorality, idolatry, sickness, unbelief, and addiction on the cross, was declared over the First Nations people of Vancouver Island. We give thanks and praise to the faithful Lord who is bringing His salvation to Nanaimo First victory Nations Church, Port Rupert Church, Glad Tidings Church, and the 53 First Nations tribes across Vancouver Island.

First Nations church members praying for the sick

Activities after next generation worship at NNVC

3) Glad Tidings Church Mission Team and Missionary Sarah Kang

Missionary Sarah Kang joined us this January as the leader of the next-generation ministry at Glad Tidings Church. Pastor José Kim, Missionary Mi Rye Shim, and Missionary Sarah previously served together for 14 years in Haiti as a special mission team. Although they can no longer return to Haiti due to severe safety concerns and travel bans, our flawless Lord has now moved these warriors to Glad Tidings Church for the souls of Cormorant Island.

Former members of the church who had long awaited its reopening are now united with the missionaries, joyfully serving through praise and transportation ministry. Weekly worship services and small group meetings are taking place with great grace. We look forward to the new things the Lord will do through the Glad Tidings Church team, who are cultivating this land through prayer and worship each day. Hallelujah!

Glad Tidings Church mission team in Alert Bay

Fellowship after Sunday service
at Glad Tidings Church

4) Food Bank Ministry and the Appointment of Pastor Phillip Chung

Hundreds of people visit Nanaimo Native Victory Church each week through our food bank ministry, which runs three times a week. Volunteers warmly serve coffee to those who come, naturally leading them into the church. We proclaim that only the gospel is our true hope.

Pastor Phillip Jung, who has many years of English Ministry (EM) experience in the United States, has joined us to lead the food bank ministry and minister to First Nations adults. Please pray that, through this prepared servant, thirsty and weary souls will return to the Lord and be restored

Food bank truck set up in the church backyard

NNVC mission team attending the First Nations Conference

5) News from Port Hardy

In March, we took eight youth from our regular youth group to the AYC camp held at Nunns Bay Campground. As we saw the young people pray fervently and actively engage in the program, we could envision the revival and growth of the next generation among the First Nations. Please continue to pray for revival at Port Rupert Church, for worship spaces in the villages of Quatsala and Quatsino, and for godly leaders and co-workers to rise among the First Nations youth.

Port Hardy youth group

First Nations youth praising joyfully

6) Please Pray With Us!

1. Lord, send a second revival to Nanaimo Native Victory Church.
2. Establish church places in the villages of Quatsala and Quatsino in Port Hardy.
3. Provide the resources needed to repair Glad Tidings Church.
4. May the next generation of First Nations grow in faith,
and raise up leaders and co-workers.
(Nanaimo Native Victory Church, Port Rupert Church, Glad Tidings Church)
5. Build Your Church among the 53 First Nations tribes on Vancouver Island.
6. Protect Pastor Joon Cho's health and fulfill the vision You have given him.

Pastoral and Missionary Team

- Senior Pastor: Rev. Joon Cho
- Nanaimo Native Victory Church - Next Generation Ministry : Rev. Joy Ji
- Nanaimo Native Victory Church - Adult Ministry : Rev. Phillip Chung
- Port Rupert Church & Missions Director : Rev. Chris Kim
- Glad Tidings Church : Rev. José Kim
- Glad Tidings Church - Next Generation Ministry : Pastor Sarah Kang
- Founding Pastors: Rev. Per & Chris Knudson

Nanaimo Native Victory Church (NNVC)

Office #: (250)754-7866, Email: office.nnvc@gmail.com

471 Irwin Street Nanaimo, BC, V9R 4X9

Charity #: 107759094RR0001